medicine &me MS

Tuesday 6th October 2009

Venue: The Royal Society, 6-9 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG

Medicine and Me conferences, initiated and developed by the Royal Society of Medicine, are specifically intended for patients and aim to provide a forum in which patients' concerns about their illness are given top priority. These meetings bring together patients, their families, carers, advocates, patient support groups, clinicians and researchers to discuss care and research issues in a particular condition.

Medicine and Me: MS will focus on the needs of patients who may have had MS for some time, and whose lives are significantly affected by the illness.
